Fatima Furtado

Fatima Furtado:

I am born in São Miguel, Azores, [inaudible]. I have a good life, because I have a good parents. I'm married from 23 years old. I come this country in 1971. I bring five kids. Ten years, I am here. I have a kid. I have a kid. It's six. Three months a year, my husband [inaudible] copper craft. I have a hard time. I need to work. My husband will stay home three years. I have two kids, and three years, again. I mothered the kids.

I have a good life, because I have a nice family, help me so much. So I have a good life in the United States. Everybody have problems, but I'm glad here.

Thanks to God, everything, we can get. I'm 84 years old. Thank God. Okay.

Interviewer:

Yeah. Anything else you want to say about the area in Bedford? Anything more about your family? Anything you want to say?

Fatima Furtado:

Good memories. My kids, everyone work with the families. I have a good time with my kids. Growing up my kids, I have a good time. I work forty years... Forty years, I've worked this country, so I'm happy. Okay.

Interviewer:

Yeah, that's all.

Fatima Furtado:

Thank you so much.

Interviewer:

No problem.

Fatima Furtado:

Thank you.